Amy Gantt Entrepreneur Group

As a Mom and former child therapist, Amy believes we all need to slow down and take time to smile. Amy says, "A smile on your face is a smile for your soul." She creates her work using gouache, watercolor and pen & ink. Her whimsical illustrations are lighthearted, lively and vibrant and express her "glass is half full" view of life.

Amy earned her B.S. in Education from Miami University, Ohio and an M.A. from the University of Dayton. She completed classes in illustration and graphic design at the Columbus College of Art and Design and fine art classes at the Cincinnati Art Academy. She has participated in juried art shows and her products are in more than 100 stores in the Midwest. "My real art education comes from life experiences including life with my husband, two creative children, one noisy cat and a dog that sings Happy Birthday," explains Amy.
