

Meet Deborah Lovett, WiBN Status Plus Member

Deborah Lovett is Executive Director of Women of the Well Ministry. She is also a wife, mother of two, author, speaker and a native Daytonian. Deborah loves to entertain, decorate, read, take walks in the woods, and write. Her speaking has been noted as "genuine, open, contagious, and warm." Her inviting spirit draws women in~ allowing them to experience God's love in a non-judgmental way.

Deborah's main credential is that God has called her beyond a shadow of a doubt to equip women-- person by person, church by church, city by city. She desires to educate women on how to ADVANCE to overflowing with a genuine, authentic joy that is contagious; thus attracting others to Jesus! Her training began in Banking as a Vice President for sales and management. She then became the Women's Ministry Director at her local church, as well as a Sunday School teacher for women. She served on the Adult Discipleship Board for Centerville Community Church. Deb chaired the Christian Women's Club of South Dayton, Ohio. As a graduate of CLASS (Christian Leaders Authors and Speakers Services), Deborah says she has been speaking and writing for as long as she can remember! She has written several articles for the Alliance Life Magazine, and is the author of Gushing Springs, a devotional book for women. For seven years Deborah wrote an on line international motivational. She has aired on local radio and shared the Gospel in the following states: Ohio, Michigan, Florida, Missouri, Maryland, Kentucky, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Alabama.
