

Meet Jen Cadieux

Clark Schaefer Hackett

Jen Cadieux is a Client Relations Coordinator at Clark Schaefer Hackett. She focuses her marketing efforts on the Manufacturing and International Business industry as well as Professional Service Providers. Jen is also responsible for the day-to-day marketing functions of the Dayton office. Jen develops networking and relationship building opportunities through networking partners, referral sources and the centers of influence in the marketplace. She is responsible for organizing events, writing proposals, market research, and participating in the company's social media strategy.

Jen is very active within the community. She is on the Board of Trustees for Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Miami Valley as well as the Marketing Committee. Jen is involved with Generation Dayton; she is a past Steering Committee Member and the previous Social Chair. She participates on various committees of the Greater Dayton Downtown Plan; a plan to revitalize Downtown Dayton. She has been in the Crown Jewels of Dayton Calendar in support of the Kettering Women's Wellness Fund. Jen was a Dayton Business Journal "40 under 40" recipient in 2010. Jen also volunteers her time with other various not for profits within the community.