

WiBN Leadership Team Chair

Lynne Bartley

After 5 Business Showcase Events

Lynne Bartley has spent the last 20 years in the world of fashion and design. She is currently a Silver Manager with Silpada Designs, a direct sales sterling silver jewelry company.

After receiving the Outstanding Senior Fashion Design award at the University of Cincinnati, Lynne has designed pieces for a couture millinery boutique and an internationally renowned tiara design studio.

Her work with Silpada Designs allows her to support numerous fund raising activities for charitable organizations, such as the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation and the Make-A-Wish Foundation. Lynne also serves as the Program and Services Chair on the University of Cincinnati's Alumni Association Board of Governors.

Lynne and her husband, Ken, reside in Springboro, but are more likely to be found traveling to another fun destination.
